

INFORMED CONSENT AND LICENSE AGREEMENT

Dear Parent/Guardian/Student,

826 Valencia helps students, ages 8–18, to develop their writing skills. Whether the students are working in the realm of fiction, nonfiction, or English as a second language, we are here to help them explore their love of writing. We offer free drop-in tutoring, workshops, and storytelling. We also help students create their own story collections, ‘zines, and other publications.

We are looking to publish work that the author is proud of. Share with us creativity, an original voice, and honesty. We do ask students to refrain from inappropriate language and incidents which may hurt or degrade others. We do retain the right to paraphrase or re-word passages during the editing process.

With each submission, the student should please include a statement listing his or her full name, age, and grade. Second, in order for 826 Valencia to publish the work, the author (or a parent/guardian if the author is under 18) must also sign this INFORMED CONSENT AND LICENSE AGREEMENT granting 826 Valencia the right to edit and publish the work (specified below) in one or more of the publications affiliated with 826 Valencia. Please send the completed form to:

Each student whose work is published in a print publication will receive a free copy of the book when it comes out.
